

CHS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

MEMBERSHIP MEETING

APRIL 21, 2018

The Coleman High School Alumni Association Membership meeting was held April 21, 2018, in the Coleman County State Bank hospitality room. The meeting was called to order by President, Bill Gardner, at 3:10 P.M. with approximately 25 members in attendance.

Minutes of the October 21, 2017, meeting was read by Imogene Miller and approved as read by the membership.

Bill recognized and thanked the prior officers. Certificates of Appreciation were given to Hubert Welch, Bob Mann, Imogene Miller, Sherry Mayfield, Lindy Armstrong and Jack Birdwell. Bill further thanked Hubert and Bob for all of their help in the transition.

The Financial Report was read by Bob Mann and approved as submitted.

Kay DiBenedetto gave a report on the 2017 reunion and was in turn thanked for a job well done.

Hubert Welch submitted an official report of the Scholarship Committee. The report was approved as submitted.

Mary Alice Larson reported on membership and website/Facebook. Her reports were approved as submitted in the Council meeting.

Bill deemed the conflict of interest provisions approved as previously submitted in Council meeting. There were no objections.

The depository/repository report was deemed sufficient as submitted.

Bill asked if anyone was interested in serving on a committee. With none responding the committees were deemed sufficient as previously submitted.

Butch Moore's fall reunion report, submitted in writing, was deemed sufficient.

There was a brief discussion about fall elections. Three Trustees will need to be elected at that time.

Bill closed with the following quote by Adlai Stevenson talking about his farm retreat in Bloomington, Illinois: "I have Bloomington to thank for the most important lesson I have ever learned: that in quiet places, reason abounds; that in quiet people, there is vision and purpose; that many things are revealed to the humble that are hidden from the great. I hope and pray that I remember the great truths that seem so obvious in Bloomington but so obscure in other places." Bill shared that he often thought about the truths in that when thinking about Coleman.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
